

MABET

Chamber of our Institution

Department/Chambers 1.

Represented by the colour Red.

This group's main duties are to defend the organisation from outside attacks and people who are not committed to accepting the rules of the organisation

Department/Chamber 2.

Represented by the colour Orange.

This group's main duties are to create a secure internal system that polices the entire administration within the interior of the organisation. Its duties include ensuring that everyone follows their domestic responsibility to the social dynamics of the organisation.

Department/Chamber 3.

Represented by the colour Yellow.

This group's main duties are to receive and to pass messages from one group to the next. This group is also responsible for teaching the philosophy and rules of conduct of the organisation as issued by the Head Chamber

Department/Chamber 4.

Represented by the colour Green.

This group's main duties are to keep a check and balance on all money transactions of the organisation. This group is also responsible for issuing a report of the financial balance of the treasury to the Deputy Head Chamber group.

Department/Chamber 5.

Represented by colour Sky Blue.

This group aka [The Secretariat], the secretary group, main duties are to keep a file on all members of the organisation. This group is also responsible for keeping on file all transactions between the Chambers.

Department/Chamber 6.

Represented by the colour Indigo.

This group aka, the Deputy Head Chamber of the organisation. Main duties are to ensure all the groups perform their duties effectively. This group is also responsible for receiving instruction from the Head Chamber and for ensuring that these instructions are passed to the yellow chamber.

Department/Chamber 7.

Represented by the colour purple.

This group aka, the Head Chamber is where principles of the organisation are created. It issues awards to members in recognition for their achievements and creates ways to improve the organisation. This group is also responsible for passing its rules and laws to the Deputy Head Chamber.